The Gospel... Public School... During School Hours...

Upheld by the U. S. Supreme Court¹ and the American Civil Liberties Union², within stated legal considerations, school children are permitted to leave their school campus, attend religious instruction, and return to school without missing school work. Originating in 1935, CBM Ministries (formerly, “Children’s Bible Mission”) utilized the ruling for “Released Time” to bring the gospel to school-age children across the nation.

Help CBM of the Great Southwest Spread the Good News!

Pray-The power of the ministry comes from the faithful prayers of Christians. We send a newsletter to CBM prayer partners.

Volunteer - Opportunities for:

- Bible Teachers to the children
- Teacher Assistants
- Legislative Support
- Bus Drivers
- Opening new school districts
- Area Coordinators

(Workers with children must meet stringent background checks for child protection.)

Donations - CBM is a work of faith, not supported by any one church or resource. The ministry depends on the tax deductible contributions from Christians, individuals or corporation, to take the gospel to children. Churches also contribute to the ministry.

CBM of the Great Southwest:
Oklahoma & Surrounding States

CBM of the Great Southwest began in 1997 with eight Oklahoma school districts opening doors to the ministry. Today, nearly 1,600 children in 29 schools, (representing 16 communities in Oklahoma and Missouri) meet for Released Time class during school hours. From that number, 92 children accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior this year! Thank you!
